

Why choose a career in IT?

Here are 5 reasons why the IT sector could connect you to a bright future.

- The IT industry needs you
Over the next 5 years more than 110,000 jobs will be created in the UK's IT sector.
- Earn more than other sectors
IT professionals aged between 16 and 29 earn around 1/3 MORE than the national average for workers of their age.
- Work anywhere
You can work anywhere in the world with the qualifications you get on a Zenos programme.
- The IT industry wants more female employees
Traditionally the IT industry has been dominated by men but this is changing. There are many companies driving this change and we are one of them.
- Be at the forefront of innovation
Be part of an industry that leads the way in fast moving change.

ZENOS

Connecting you to a career in IT

Zenos IT Apprenticeships for 16 -18 year olds

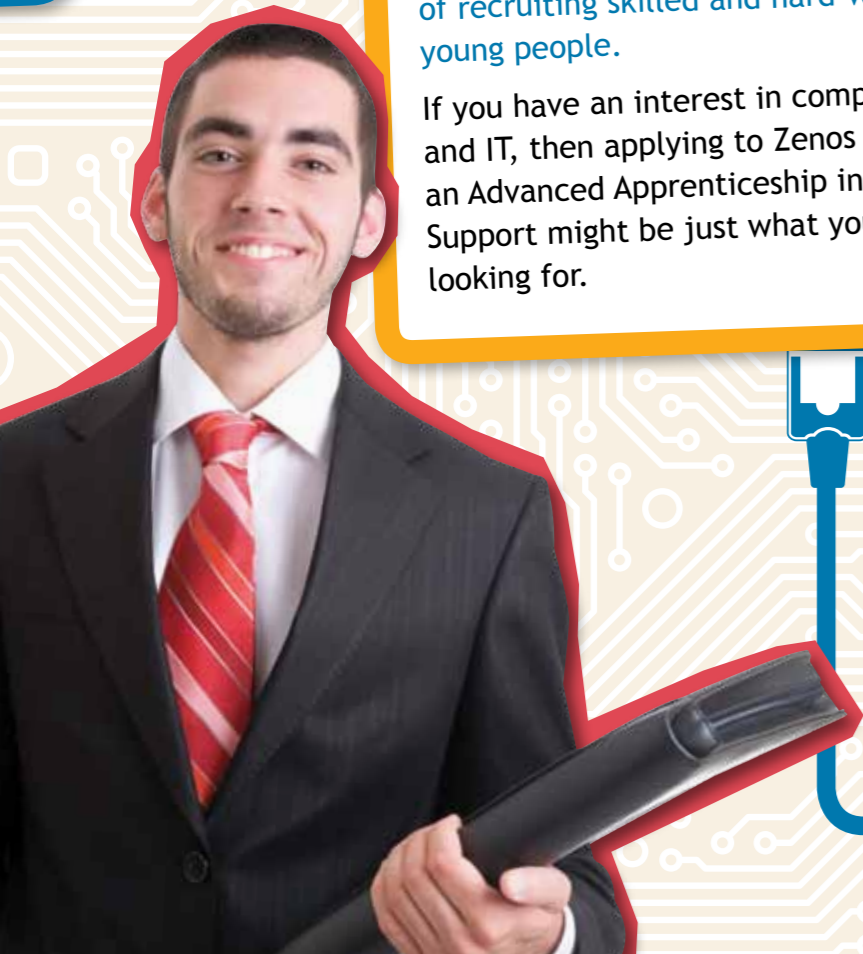

Earn the Apprenticeship wage and pay no tuition fees.

What is an Apprenticeship?

Apprenticeships are a great way of gaining qualifications and workplace experience. They are becoming more and more recognised and accepted by UK employers as a way of recruiting skilled and hard-working young people.

If you have an interest in computers and IT, then applying to Zenos for an Advanced Apprenticeship in IT Support might be just what you're looking for.

Why choose Zenos?

A Zenos programme leads not only to an Advanced Apprenticeship but also to internationally recognised qualifications that employers of IT professionals look for.

Benefits of a Zenos programme:

- typically 17 weeks study in a state-of-the-art Training Centre
- Up to 21 weeks on-the-job assessment
- Earn the Apprenticeship wage
- No tuition fees to pay
- Gain Microsoft and CompTIA qualifications
- Outstanding success rates - more than 96% of our learners gain their Apprenticeship

Helping you find the right job

You will spend some of your time working with an employer, putting into practice all the training you've received in the Training Centre. This is a great way to convince an employer to offer you a permanent role once you finish the programme.

We will help in many other ways including:

- Advice and support on how to conduct yourself at work
- Creating a powerful CV
- Great interview techniques
- Writing application letters that make you stand out

More than 96% of Zenos learners gain their Advanced Apprenticeship
